Terms of use

Using open data

You can use data from Open Data Umeå as long as you follow the terms of its licence.

Sometimes we must remove data. This is usually because it contains information that could identify an individual or is commercially sensitive.
We are unable to offer any guarantees regarding updating, nor can we ensure uninterrupted access to data.

We take care to ensure that data is accurate. However, you should make your own checks before relying on it.